

SECRET CONTROL
U. S. OFFICIALS ONLY

25X1

STRATEGIC SERVICES UNIT, WAR DEPARTMENT

Country: Poland

Subject: Polish Air Force Personnel

25X1

1. The CO of the Polish Air Force is General Polynin, who is Russian. General Remoiko (pseudonym), and General Szaga are the Deputy CO's. HQ of the air force are at Pruszkow.

25X1

Comments:

- a. Army General V. P. Polynin has been in command of the Polish Air Force since August 1948.
- b. Remoiko is the well-known Soviet officer Col. A. Remoiko who participated in operations for Warsaw and Kolberg and was a member of the 18th Air Army on the 1st Bialo-Russian Front. In January 1946 he was given the rank of Brigadier General in the Polish Air Force.
- c. In January 1946 a General Szaga was Chief of an Aviation School at Dablin. An officer by the name of Szaga has not yet been identified in the Soviet Air Force.
2. Soviet Air Force bases are located at Swidnik (near Lublin), Wroclaw (Breslau), Poznan, Stettin, and Bialystok.
3. The liaison officer for civilian traffic with the Polish Air Force is Col. Nicimiojanow (sic) a Russian. His predecessor was Col. Vessennikov who was ordered back to Russia for showing sympathy to the Polish LOT (Polish Airline).
4. All important posts in the Polish Air Force are given to Soviet officers.

25X1

Comments:

- a. Col. Vessennikov has not been identified previously.

SECRET CONTROL

U. S. OFFICIALS ONLY

SECRET CONTROL
U. S. OFFICIALS ONLY

STRATEGIC SERVICES UNIT, WAR DEPARTMENT

25X1

-2-

- b. On October 1945 a Lt. Col. Nosmyanow was identified in the Air Force at Tashkent. He may not be identical with Col. Nosmolejanow.

25X1

25X1

SECRET CONTROL
U. S. OFFICIALS ONLY